About the player:

Shaney is the 'fastest thing on two legs', Central's attacking style is dependant on Shaney's ability to break down counter attacks by the opposition. More than this she looks to bring the ball forward and support the attack. 100% commitment from 'ginge' always.

Her teammates think:

Lively bubbly a great presence around the team, great player and great leadership qualities. Shaney must be every strikers nightmare especially when chasing down a ball...never beaten, never gives up, always a winner edition 4

5th Aug 2018
SWPL 2

Welcome to Glasgow Girls to Indodrill today which if the first game is anything to go by will be a cracker of a game.

Central lost the final league game before the break to Hearts in a lack luster game which was the final curtain for our US scholarship players, although did go a flat on the day, Central had picked up 3pts in their previous match v Aberdeen to see them move into 7th place just above the Dons. Elsewhere Motherwell demolition of today's opponents Glasgow Girls further supporter the 'Iron(wo)men's' tag of champions elect. EUHV continued their run of good form of 5 games unbeaten with a win over Aberdeen who will look to the 2nd half of the season as their time with new signings and manager installed. Talking of managers Motherwell manager Eddie has left to take up the reins at Celtic, the impact on Motherwell will be felt however it seems that they have enough in reserve to maintain their promotion challenge. St Johnstone pushed into 3rd spot with a win over Kilmarnock in what has been an inconsistent first half of the season will see them consolidate in the top half, Killie great early for should leave them safe but worth watching. EUHV will look to push up the league and it would be hard to believe Glasgow Girls won't push on and threaten the top half of the division, that means for Central a difficult 2nd half of the season, however with new players in and great desire they won't give it their best shot.

Picture Kate with Player of the Tournament Trophy for the Coalfields International Cup tournament, will feature today.

Surely this isn't right report by Seymour Clearly

How can this be... sometimes rules linger in the law volumes that sit on the shelves of Hampden set years ago with good intention however not fit for the current set up and Central are about to be b e h i t h a r d. The 17's National Youth Camp sees to of our players selected, fully deserved and another successful route from club to country, as Central manage to produce an increasing number of players to the national set up. Here's the dilemma, as the call up clashes with a SWPL fixture, Central auctioned a postponement for their game v EUHV, only to be told that the game must go ahead, much to the surprise to the club they checked the rules. In short if Central were playing a SWFL match the game would be called off, basically respecting the club and country conflict and the impact it would have in team and performance, however at 17's the rule doesn't apply to the SWPL sides (only at 19's and Women's A) so applying a club v country conflict and putting Central into a difficult situation, do the withdraw the girls totally from the National Camp, withdraw them for the actual Central game, which takes place on the evening of day 2 of the 3 day Camp, or do they leave them to pursue their international dream and leave them at the Camp and play without t h e g i r l s. Before the club made the decision we requested that EUHV rescheduled the game, we were honest and explained the situation and they simply declined, stating that the game goes ahead as scheduled. EUHV antics over this rearranged fixture have been laudable and been documented previously, but surely a University more than other club possibly would embrace the idea of player development and rather than see an advantage to them in their pursuit of survival in the SWPL. In reality they didn't entertain the request and the game goes ahead, a fair reaction well in terms of self preservation certainly was in terms of Scottish women's player and team development, not a chance. Central made a final plea for commonsense to prevail but to no avail, the SWPL insisted that the game went ahead, interesting their explanation included that platforms for the girls age groups existed as to not conflict the SWPL, a statement which essentially means that the girls should be playing in the SWFL or U19's National Performance League. Incredible considering that Chelsea McEachran, who is one of the players was Player of the Month in the SWPL earlier this season, anyone that has watched her will know she is vital to the team and despite her age a top top player in many ways and certainly the envy of m a n y c l u b s. Speaking to the 17's National Coach, Central were again frustrated in terms of despite the empathy with the situation there was little they could do either. So the dilemma now faced, was the club that has nurtured and developed these players to the standard required for the international set up to withdraw them and insist that they play for their club, or were they simply to allow them to attend Camp with no requirement to play for the club, in this fixture. Central do as they allow so they take the higher player focussed decision and will not place the girls and parents in decision making on this, Central have in essence been punished by the decision and this should not happen again, Central accept that the rules are in place for this ruling however in light of this dilemma surely must be changed. The club will put forward a proposal so clubs are not impacted in the future at the AGM meanwhile further conflicts may occur in the future and surely no club, other than maybe Edinburgh University would vote against it. Empathy is one thing but doing something about it is another the SFA Head of Girls and Women's Football, Donald Gillies is aware of the situation and all be it his hands are tied by the rules, the decision offered was one of defence of the rules rather than one of protection of the clubs, which surely the rules are set up to do. To protect the clubs and to provide fairness.

Inside the Bootroom

Inside the Bootroom will give an insight to behind the scenes at Central SWPL team with latest news and stories straight from the coaches and players themselves.

With 4 of our 1st team players off to the USA, actually Kim leaves tomorrow so we have her available for the Glasgow Girls game, this will have an impact on the side. Despite the girls moving on we have been busy in the transfer market and have brought in 3 players 2 of which should make their debuts today.

We have also lost 2 other players to Sirling Uni is what can only be seen as a body blow we simply have to get on with it, Naomi and Abby have signed for the Uni and left the club with an additional player problem. Where we can celebrate girls heading over to the States on full scholarships we simply find the girls moving on to Stirling as disappointing in the least. Where Abby was fairly new to the club, brought in for the SWPL campaign, and given we are sitting in the lower reaches she is justified in moving on, Naomi on the other had had been with the club for a number of years and when she arrived at the club her ambition was to win the Scottish Cup, a League title and be called up for Scotland, more that achieve all of these and more she was a regular 1st team player in the SWPL for her to walk away will be hard to accept simply because her aspirations had been met. Would it have been too much for her to commit herself to the season and use her taken and our development on her to guide the club to safety, clearly it was something she was willing to do and that commitment was lacking.

On the positive side the team have been working hard in training and most have had a game or two to work the new system we have put in place. There is an appetite to give the 2nd half of the season an real go and see what we can achieve over the next few months in the pursuit of survival.

Some success over the summer months since the last edition saw the Legends win the U13's Central League, also along with the 13's push into the League Cup later stages, the semi final draw has still to be made. The Legends also in the 1/4 finals of the Scottish Cup face a long journey north to face Aberdeen side Don Girls. The 15's won the ACES UK Championship in Nottingham, defeating Hendon 1-0 in the final, followed by the Coalfields International Cup when they defeated fellow Scots Boroughmuir in the final 3-1. The 15's C won the Enios Cup with a tense penalty shootout v Boroughmuir (again) after a final 1-1 draw. The 11's have been outstanding throughout the summer picking up medals galore in their travels. The Legends won the Kelpies Cup, with a 13's section winning at Holytown. The youth programme is in a good place... long may that continue....

Central News

More Silverware came to the club in the shape of the ACES UK Championship Cup, after a grueling group stage the 15's were to face #1 seeds Bolton in the 1/4 final, winning 2-0 they were to repeat the result in the semis v Derby, in the final Hendon (North London) who were last seasons champions had moved through comfortably throughout, including defeating Central in the group stage. However the final was a showpiece for Central are were the better side winning 1-0 much to the disappointment of the Hendon who burst the ball after the game (we retrieved it and will put it on display in the clubhouse).

The Coalfields Cup which featured the top 2 sides from Scotland, England and Wales was fought out only to see both Scots sides reach the final, Boroughmuir who we Scottish Champions were defeated by Central 3-1 for the girls to lift another major Cup.

International call ups for the CYP Scotland u15's and 17's squads saw Cerys (17's) and Louise A, Kate and Eva (15's) face Wales yesterday (4th Aug) the Scots won both games and the girls performed well. The girls all picked up their Caps which is embroidered and a superb keepsake for them.

The Legends won the Kelpies Cup, after the disappointment of the 13's select that missed out on the Gartcairn Cup the previous week on penalties.

ASDA kindly presented the club with a cheque for £200 many thanks to Nicolle and the ASDA store for their support, also they're friendly stff who looked after theoyoungsters in the recent Back Pack earlier this year.

The 11's squad which has lit up every tournament they've played in this summer north and south of the border, well done James fantastic job
